

FUEL/LUBE TANKER DRIVER/TECH

General Description:

Performs any combination of duties on construction projects usually working as a team member with varied experience and ability. Essential to possess good communication skills and be organized and a safety minded individual.

Maintain heavy equipment, fuel, oil and lube; Proficient in driving a broad range of commercial trucks. CDL A License with hazmat and tanker endorsement. Able to transport fuel from one destination or another. Acceptable driving record a must Physical effort required. Ability to lift 0 to 50 pounds occasionally. Must be able to stand, bend, stretch for extended periods of time; ability to bend, crouch and climb on and off the equipment repetitively; Use hands, arms and legs fully. Work conditions will consist of exposure to grease, noise, dust and dirt of the construction project or shop.

We offer: Competitive salary and benefit package including medical/dental/401K with growth opportunities.

Drug Free Workplace/EOE

954.680.6100
info@bergeroninc.com